

Golf Digest

9 weird, wild, undeniably cool bottles of booze for Father's Day

By Coleman Bentley

Share this story:

Dad definitely isn't wild and he might not be cool. Weird? Maybe, but let's be honest, the only thing he's at the cutting edge of is historical cutlery. That's where you come in. It's your responsibility each and every Father's Day to help nudge your dad back to reality and what better way to ease the transition than with a few drams of these modern booze marvels descended from the classics he loves? With a little luck and a lot of hard work, who knows, you might even have him drinking IPAs by July 4th.

Plantation Xaymaca Special Dry Rum

What is it? A super affordable rum revival just in time for summer.

Why is it cool? If you're a casual rum drinker, chances are you're familiar with the Bacardis and Captain Morgans of the world. Don't let that deter you. Plantation Rum has made a name for itself in the premium rum world by resuscitating lost, forgotten, and just flat-out ignored rum recipes that will change everything you think you know about the spirit of the Caribbean. Enter the new Xaymaca Special Dry, which revives the lesser-seen Jamaican pot style for truly funky, fun summer sipper/mixer bursting with flavors of black banana and flambéed pineapple.